Students, Staff Display Homecoming Spirit

JOHNNY MARISCAL and a little friend present the Senior Class with the 1979 Spirit Trophy.

IT LOOKS like this group of students plan to keep dry during the downpour at the Homecoming Game.

WHO IS THAT LION? Is what the little girl's asking herself as she looks up at him or her.

DURING halftime of the Homecoming Game the band presents its annual light show for the fans.

READY, GET SET, GO! All of the classes are lined up for the sack race during the field events.

KIM CALTON gives Josie Ochoa a bouquet of roses for being this year's Pep Club president.

Jack Adams Serves As Grand Marshall

HAROLD JEPSEN is getting his car in line for the parade. His classic car will be used to escort the Queen's Attendants.

WATCHING a skit during their Homecoming rally is the Senior Class. The seniors won Homecoming Week this year.

ANXIOUS sophomores await the signal from the starter to begin the tug-o-war event on the track.

Senior Class Captures Spirit Week Trophy

Students Select Colburn As

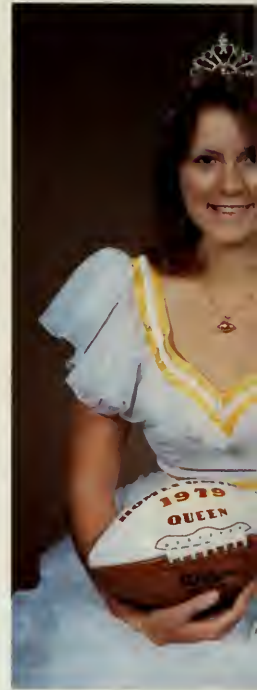

SHERRY HURST, Tracy Ward, Brenda Carvajal, and Gina Gonsalves applaud nervously during the Homecoming Rally before the queen is announced.

WHAT A NIGHT! Gina Gonsalves and Sandy Stoneberger are still smiling brightly at the end of the parade route.

A SURPRISED QUEEN, Jodie Colburn, gets congratulated by the Top Ten contenders during the first few moments after her announcement.

THE 1979 HOME-COMING QUEEN is Jodie Colburn and her court attendants are Wendy Fortner, Gina Gonsalves, Kathy Graves, and Sandy Stonebarger. Jodie is holding her trophy and autographed football, which she received during the halftime ceremony.

SHERRY HURST and Tracy Ward smile for the photographer during Homecoming, October 19, 1979.

1979 Homecoming Queen

ATTENDANTS Wendy Fortner and Kathy Graves take a moment for relaxing conversation out on the Ohmstede Field.

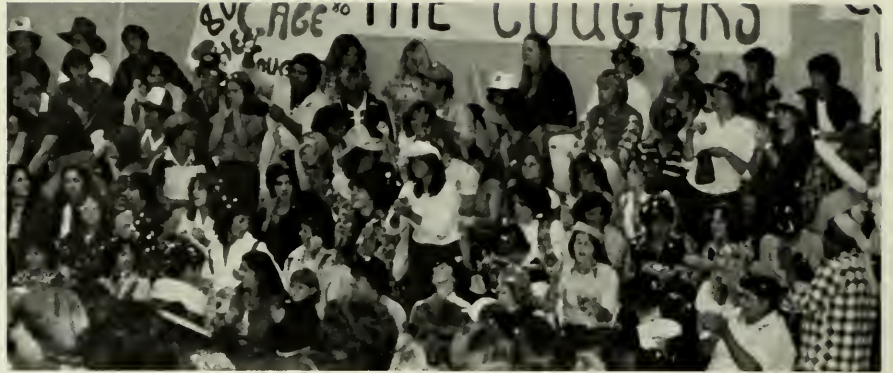

YOU'RE KIDDING! Wendy Fortner, one of the Queen's attendants appears excited about something. Could it be the game?

JODIE COLBURN, 1979 Homecoming Queen, smiles shyly after being crowned queen and receiving the traditional rewards.

Different Interests Show Unique School Spirit

Varsity Football Team Shares League Title

GETTING READY for a back-hand swing is Cindy Mercado who played Varsity this year.

GORDON BALL, #26, is getting a little close to the sideline as he runs by his opponent. Kevin Young runs behind.

GIRLS' TENNIS COACH, Jerry Crawford, relaxes on the grass at an away meet. This is Coach Crawford's first year with the girls' team.

THE LIONS seemed to have out smarted their opponents. We had a good year this year with a League Co-Championship.

AT THE Homecoming Rally Head Varsity Coach Mark Watson gets escorted by the smallest member of the Rally Squad.

THE HIGH hanging helmet symbolized the spirit and glory of a winning season.

DEDICATING the Homecoming Game during the rally are the three varsity co-captains.

MAY AMBA gets ready to return the ball in a tennis meet at the Los Lomas courts.

Moods Show Varied School Student Body

LUNCH BREAK SHANANIGANS. On a sunny fall day a group of Liberty girls vie for the camera's attention on the lawn during their lunch period.

JENNIFER TAYLOR pauses to buy a helium-balloon from a Play-maker. The action is captured against the setting sun on Homecoming Day.

SUE CHURCHILL, a P.E. teacher, exposes her glossy whites while walking to class.

THINKING pleasant thoughts between classes is sophomore Tami Dickey.

CHEERING on the Pep Club trailer are Lori Hanberg, Kim Shanks, and Pauline Gaddis.

JULIE PLUMBRIDGE and Teresa Christensen smile brightly on the eve of the Homecoming Game.

TAKING roll in Physiology class is Barbara Whitfield. This is Mrs. Whitfield's first year of teaching in the Science Department.

TAKING a break in the library is the new ag department teacher, Don Lopez.

SPORTS

Liberty athletes grabbed off four championship seasons this year with crowns in football, basketball, and softball.

Losing only a single game to the co-champions of the FAL, Miramonte, the Varsity football team under the direction of Coach Mark Watson, enjoyed a fine season against rough competition. Quarterbacked by junior Richard Cabral and led by fine tight end David Continente the team mounted both an effective ground and aerial attack.

For the first time since the 1948-49 season, the varsity basketball team captured a league championship. After beating Miramonte and Campolindo back to back the Lions went on to the championship with a 15-9 record. Winning second place in the Yuba City Tournament was just another highlight of the highly successful season. Coached by Jerry Miller the team was lead by most valuable player and captain, Scott Barnes and co-captain Dago Oseguera.

Led by the first year coach Rick Melgoza the frosh basketball enjoyed a 12-2 season and captured the league championship.

Winning their third straight championship the girls jv softball team only lost a single game enroute to a 15-1 season. Coached by Jerry Miller the key games were against Campolindo (beat them three times) Acalanes and arch-rival Antioch. Co-most valuable players were Chris Appleby and Charisse Frazier.

Spring sports were plagued by intermittent rain storms as the girls' track team qualified Wendy Fortner and Jeanne Gallegos for the state track meet. Al Hastings was a stand out in boys' track. Varsity baseball started out with a string of six straight victories, a second place finish in the Alhambra Easter Tournament and convincing victories over DVAL Champs Antioch but they had to settle for a third place finish in the FAL.

In golf, Larry Thornhill earned a place to the North Coast Tournament and Becky McKinney became the first girl to join the team.

Both wrestling and swimming were re-installed this year. Coached by Cindy Spier the swimmers enjoyed one of their finest season in years with an 8-5 season.

Awards and honors earned this year in sports are as followed: Varsity Football: Teddy Ohmstede- David Continente, MVP- Louis Fernandez, MV Back- David Continente, MV Lineman- Stan Orman, Most Inspirational- Gordon Ball. #10 RICHARD CABRAL hands the ball off to Louis Fernandez #30 for a quick play.

BOY, DO THEY LOOK MAD! Even Gordon Ball #26 looks upset. Was it a questionable call by the referee?

THE CELEBRATION CAKE for wining FAL Championship was decorated appropriately by the Rally Squad.

Varsity Shares Championship With 7-1 Mark

WHAT'S SO FUNNY? Jon Townsend, Mark Kruger, Robert Pringle and Tim Byre apparently like it.

COACHES JERRY LILLEY, Mark Watson, and John Rogers take a moment of their time to pose for a picture.

ON THE SIDE lines the team members watch the game with interest.

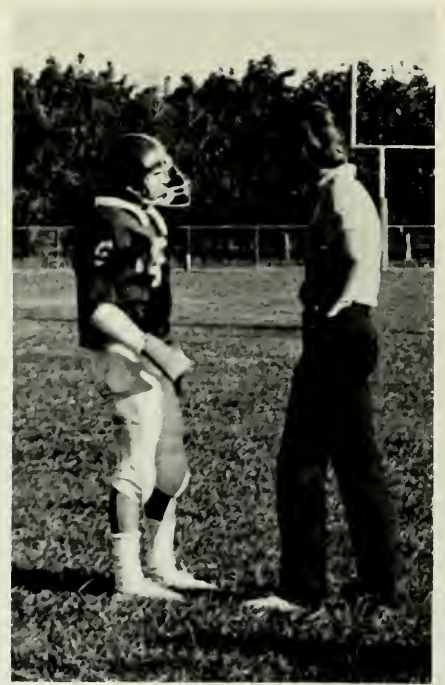

KEVIN SCHWITTERS stands next to #10 Richard Cabral, quarter back this year.

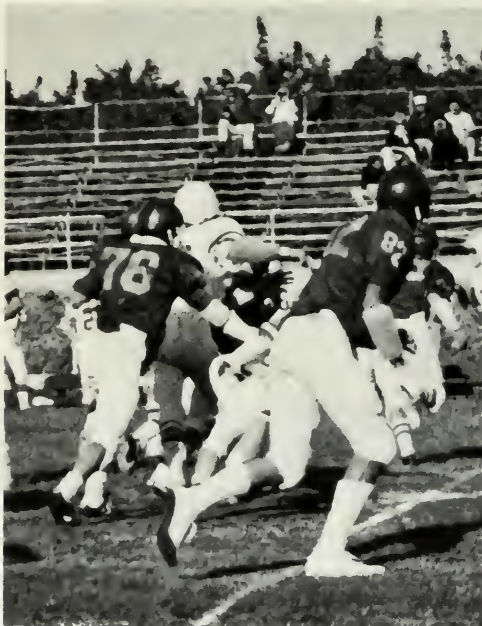

Sports' Program Expands For '79-80 Season

KEITH THOMAS tries to help one of the freshman backs gain extra yardage at home.

FROSH COACH Rick Fortner discusses game strategy with Alex Sanabria during a time-out.

MATT WILGENBUSH moves to his left as the flow of action skirts around the left end. The freshman team was coached by an ex-Liberty star, Rick Fortner.

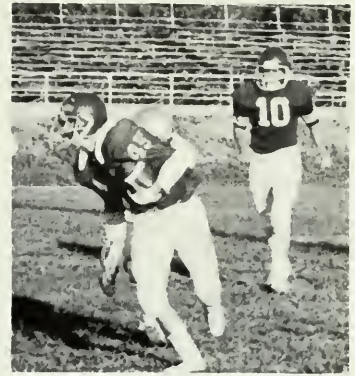

ALEX SANABRIA busts up a hole in the middle of the line as Keith Thomas and Reno Chavararella try to pick up blocks to spring Alex free.

New Coach, Fortner, Heads Freshmen Team

MATT WILGENBUSH and Reno Chavarrella trot off the field at the completion of a successful play.

AFTER handing off to Alex Sanabria, David Bristow watches him gain yards around left end.

DAVID BRISTOW, quarterback of the freshman team, tries to gain yardage on a keeper.

PUNTING from deep in his own territory, Marco Vega tries to get the freshman team out of a hole.

LESLIE SERVIN, editors book and Joyce Guterrez, activities, are photographed in the junior section.

This year the Annual Staff was composed of entirely new people. There was much enthusiasm at the beginning of the year with a staff of 41. We took a long time in deciding a cover but after 3 votes we decided on the theme "Hail Liberty" and a new cover color of white and a new end-sheet with foil. We continued the newly started tradition of Senior Class section in color. This year we have a larger closing section and the largest Advertisement section ever. We tried a new type of division page with a collage of Classes, Activities, Curriculum and Advertisements.

By the end of the year, the staff was down to 25 official members. But there was a small group of about 7 devoted staff members who did the bulk of the work.

CO-EDITOR LION 1980, Brenda Twigg, clowns around on Dress-up Day during Homecoming Week.

The staff members who put in a lot of extra time, namely Joyce Guiterrez, Johnny Mariscal, Becky McKinney, and Shari Roderick made the book such a success. We would like to thank those of you members who stuck it out til the end (3:46, June 6th). We made it, but we just barely made it.

The Annual Staff would like to thank "Botz" who put up with novice editors, and all the teachers who put up with our time out of classes, last minute picture identifying, and missed work from long hours of drawing pages and counting captions.

Next year, Shari Roderick is going to try being an editor, good luck!

To the Class of '80, the staff hopes that your past four years at Liberty were happy and productive. We tried to reflect the spirit of Liberty that this class has established.

We would also like to thank Mr. Bill Stephenson, Yearbook Representative and Mr. Hal Matson, Professional Photographer.

Good Luck Class of '80. Thanks Beth and Brenda.

PHOTOGRAPHER and Senior Editor, Donna Westhorpe is captured taking pictures.

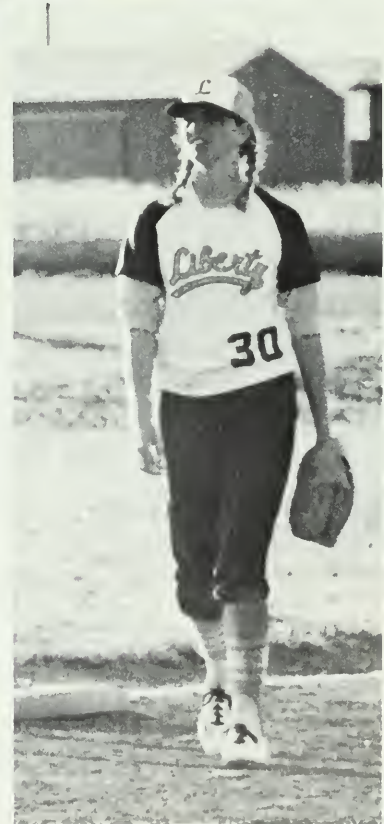

SHARI RODERICK was a tremendous asset helping with classes, sports, etc.

SANDY YATES helped the '80 yearbook staff with photography.
